Subject : WOMEN's LEAGUE CUP + WS EUROPE CUP

Dear Gentlemen:

The 2019 / 2020 season, when it did not end due to the COVID-19 pandemic, makes it possible to some pre-procedure for the 2020 / 2021 season, in the sense of whether the number of clubs that will sign up, makes it possible or not to maintain the current competitive model. Like this, with the approach of the sports season of 2020 / 2021, the Women's League Cup to this date will be played according to the competitive model that in the season 2019 / 2020 prevailed and that below again is informed, as established in the following points:

1. WOMEN's LEAGUE CUP - PARTICIPATION OF TEAMS

- 1.1. Each national affiliated Federation may register a maximum of 4 clubs, always having to indicate what the "order of priority" in the registrations they make (national champion, 2nd place, Cup winner, etc.).
 - 1.1.1. When the total number of entries exceeds 16 teams, the qualifying rounds will be made that prove necessary.

2. WS EUROPE CUP - PARTICIPATION OF TEAMS

- 2.1. Each national affiliated Federation may register a maximum of 5 clubs, always having to indicate what the "order of priority" in the registrations they make.

3. REGISTRATION OF PARTICIPATION OF TEAMS

- 3.1. June 30, 2020 is the deadline for each National Federation – depending on the registration share allocated to it – to ensure to the WSE-RH the PRIOR indication of the clubs of its affiliates who will participate in the Women's League Cup of the 2020 / 2021 season.
 - 3.1.1. In the following period, the WSE-RH will produce information on the competitive model
- 3.2. July 31, 2020 is the deadline for each National Federation – depending on the registration share allocated to it – to ensure to the WSE-RH the DEFINITIVE indication of the clubs of its affiliates who will participate in the Women's League Cup of the 2020 / 2021 season.

Best regards,

Agostinho Silva
